Theory Plus Takes Off!

Our Theory Plus service has been around for a couple of months now. Since then, we've had your feedback. We're pleased to say that it has all been positive. This

The best bit is the price - only £10 per hour! To get help with your revision or piece of mind that your ready for your test, call our theory trainers today on (05601)620369 or visit www.lynxdrivers.co.uk to book or to find out more.

Learner Shop Launches New Service!

The learner shop online has served many happy customers and with our help, have passed their tests. Due to the current financial situation we have been looking at ways to make theory and practical test literature within easy reach of everyone. So we have introduced our new Learner Shop Online Hire Service, where you can borrow anything we sell for how ever long you like from only £3 a week! So visit www.lynxdrivers.co.uk/shop to find out more.
